Although the AICPA precludes us from issuing comfort letters, we have taken into consideration the members' global cash flow and reviewed the entity's projections, there seems to be adequate availability of funds in the outstanding Accounts Receivable to cover project costs.

DISCHARGE AND COORDINATION OF CARE POLICY

Policy

At Avenues, the length of treatment will vary from patient to patient. While in treatment, patients are assessed daily to determine length of stay. When discharging patients, the continuum of care is critical to the patient's success. Avenues believes that it is essential to maintain communication and coordination among providers.

Avenues is committed to the seamless and successful transition of each patient into the next level of care (coordination of care); therefore, the process of transition planning is initiated with the patient as soon as clinically appropriate in the person-centered treatment plan and service delivery process.

Transfer and referral agreements with other facilities are an intricate part of a patient's treatment. Avenues has established strong community partnerships, locally and across that state of Maryland. These relationships are the core of our practice and are essential in providing superior care to the patients serves. Avenues has written transfer and referral agreements with facilities capable of managing cases which exceed, extend, or complement its own capabilities, including facilities which provide inpatient, intensive and general outpatient programs, halfway house placement, long-term care, aftercare, and other types of appropriate follow-up treatment.

Each patient's treatment plan includes, at least one year of aftercare following discharge from the facility. This may include the coordination of care with an outpatient provider in close proximity to the patient's home (or sober home).
