Utilization: Health Services Cost Review Commission's Inpatient Confidential Files (private chronic hospitals); and Maryland Department of Health's Hospital Management Information System (state-operated chronic hospitals).

<sup>3</sup> Western Maryland Hospital Center's occupancy rate, based on its reported 16 budgeted chronic hospital beds, would be 34.2 percent.

<sup>4</sup> Deer's Head Hospital Center's occupancy rate, based on its 11 budgeted chronic hospital beds, would be 29 percent.

<sup>5</sup> The occupancy rate for the two State-operated chronic hospitals, based on the total 27 budgeted chronic hospital beds, would be 32.1 percent.

<sup>6</sup> The statewide chronic hospital bed occupancy rate, based on the 238 licensed beds at the four private facilities and the 27 budgeted beds at the two state-operated facilities would be 47.2 percent.
